Game Rules

- The game is played inside netted courts which allows the ball to stay alive
- All referees used are provided by the venue and appointed to adjudicate the rules of the game with absolute impartiality
- Match referees will interpret the rules to the best of their ability and their decisions during the game are final
- The captains of both teams are the only players that may query rule applications made by the referee. Once the referee has replied, any further arguments may cause the team to be penalised.
- Each church must have one representative that is nominated in advance to respectfully query decisions if needed. No other parent/player/church official may approach the referee. Disrespect from players/parents or church representatives may lead to team disqualification.
- Players may run anywhere on the court except for the goalkeeper area. A designated goalkeeper is the only player allowed in this area
- If a defender enters the goalkeeper area, a penalty kick will be awarded
- If an attacking player enters the goalkeeper's area, a free kick will be awarded to the goalkeeper
- To tackle or play the ball, players must be on their feet. Tackling can only be made from the front of an opponent whilst they have control of the ball
- Slide tackles are not permitted
- Free kicks will be awarded against any player tackling from the side or back or slide tackling
- Players taking a penalty can take no more than a 2-step run up, i.e. one step then kick
- All other players must stand behind the ball and not within 3 metres of the player taking the kick
- A yellow card will be given to any player playing outside the spirit of the game and the code of behaviour guidelines. The yellow card is a warning that if they continue in this manner they will be sent from the court
- A red card, will be given to any player not playing in the spirit of the game. When a red card is issued, the will result in the player missing the remainder of the game and possibly the rest of the tournament (up to the discretion of officials or referees).

Other rules might be in play as instructed by the venue management, those rules will be passed on to teams on the day by the sports leaders and match referees
